Dr.M.Premkumar, Principal of Paavai Engineering College, greeted the chairman and RAC members. He provided an overview of the institute's research accomplishments, research development programmes, incubation services, and internal income creation over the previous year. The development of the institute's research operations is also highlighted.

Faculty members have published their articles in Scopus journals. There was a prolonged deliberation about the status of each advisor's research work on the institute's research development, incubation, and consultancy projects. The group members discussed on the work that was being done and provided significant comments and ideas for future study.

Recommendation of RAC

- Motivated the students to enhance research by attending workshops, seminars in various domains.
- To encourage and inculcate research and innovative projects.
