Smt. Mangai Natarajan, Correspondent, Paavai Institutions along with the dignitaries lighted the Kuthuvilaku. It was followed with bhajan by the students who immersed the gathering in a divine path. In the welcome cum Presidential address, Shri. CA. N. V. Natarajan, Chairman, of Paavai Institutions expressed his wishes for Teachers Day. He addressed, that it was a divine day and teachers were the root cause for the transformation of the society. He stressed the significance of Padha Pooja stating that teachers should rededicate themselves to serve the students and work for the growth of the society. He also added that inaugurating such functions with the lighting of kuthuvilaku symbolizes God and divine power. He also addressed that Paavai should reach the height of the Himalayas in the coming years.

Dr. C. Sathish, Director, Paavai Group of Schools delivered his Teacher's Day address. In his talk, he emphasized that teachers should be role model to the students and should provide the right guidance. A good teacher should have professional knowledge and competency. He also added that learning is a continuous process, and it is the need of the hour. He also insisted, that all the teachers do a self-analysis of their weaknesses and focus on it. He ended his talk with a short story emphasizing the qualities of a compassionate teacher.

Smt. Mangai Natarajan, Correspondent, Paavai Institutions, felicitated the gathering. It was followed by the Padha Pooja for the teachers done by the students. It was a heart-melting event where the students performed the Pooja, and the teachers showered their blessings to them. The celebration ended with a Vote of thanks by the Director Administration, Paavai Institutions. All the faculty were served lunch, and it was attended by Directors, Deans, Principals, Controller of Examinations, Senior Professors, faculty members and students.

Ms. S.Sretharassene of final year ECE introduced the Guest Speaker Mrs. Vanjulavalli Sridhar, Chief Wildlife Warden and Conservator of Forests, Puducherry. The Guest Speaker in her keynote address stated that students should break down barriers and emerge as path creators in this women-centered, dependent society. She said that girls of Paavai should become experts in their field of interest, financially self-sufficient and undaunted enough to face the society, by practicing virtues and good deeds at young age. She also asserted that students have to be professional expertise in reading, physically active, integrate the accumulated knowledge and work effectively to lay the foundation for future and become progressive persons with knowledge in all fields. She then insisted them to become financially self-sufficient, learn strategies and techniques to clearly convey ideas to others in future workplace, career, and family with equity. She then wished them to outshine in every activity by breaking the inner fears and barriers in head, getting over personal trauma, being persistent and sheen among friends, family and society.

Smt.Mangai Natarajan, the Correspondent of Paavai Institutions felicitated the gathering. In her felicitation, she proclaimed that women of Paavai should adopt science in daily life to easily deal life. She further said that the real purpose of education is to know oneself and being both physically and mentally wellbeing. She appealed the students to make use of empowerment programmes held in Paavai, which helps to understand the environs and expose globally. She then wished the students to grow intellectually and bond emotionally achieving all success.

Title: MoU with CII-Yi (Yuva) and Induction Program

Date and Time: 02.06.2022 and 2.30 pm to 4.30 pm

Venue: Kalam Chamber

A Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by Paavai engineering college and CII-Young Indians (Yuva) on 02.06.2022. The programme started in the presence of Shri.CA.N.V.Natarajan, Chairman, Paavai Institutions, Guest Speaker Mrs Sheetal Gandhi, Chair, Yi Tiruppur, Dr.M.Premkumar, Principal, Paavai Engineering College, Mr. S S. Senthilrajan, Chair, Yi Salem, Mrs. Nagalakshmi Vignesh, Co-Chair, Yi Salem, Prof.M.Mohan, First Year HoD, Faculty Coordinator Mrs.A.Samundeeswari, AsP, ECE, along with the CII-Young Indians (Yuva) students of all the departments of Paavai Engineering College.

Shri.CA.N.V.Natarajan, Chairman, Paavai Institutions presided over function, Signed the MoU and delivered the presidential address. In his address, he highlighted the importance of students empowerment and development in all aspects. He motivated the students to be receptive and informative about the happenings and serve the society.
