Activity Name: Independence Day CelebrationDate: 15.08.2023

The 78th Independence Day celebration at Paavai Educational Institutions was a grand event organized by all the colleges under the Paavai group. The ceremony began with the Tamil Thaaai Vazhthu and the Flag Song. The Chairman of Paavai Educational Institutions, Auditor Mr. N.V. Natarajan, hoisted the national flag, officially inaugurating the celebration. Following this, the Chairman received the salute from students representing all the colleges.

In his Independence Day address, Auditor Mr. N.V. Natarajan extended his heartfelt greetings on the occasion. He commended the students for their spirited, disciplined, and orderly parade, noting it as truly impressive. He reminded everyone that the freedom we enjoy today is the result of the sacrifices made by our freedom fighters, who gave their lives and shed their blood. He urged everyone to cherish the resources of our nation, highlighting that despite the differences in language, religion, and culture, India exemplifies unity in diversity. He emphasized the importance of understanding and valuing our nation's heritage.

Furthermore, the Chairman stressed the significance of personal integrity for the country's development, describing it as the highest virtue that leads directly to progress. He stated that individual advancement contributes to the nation's advancement and encouraged the younger generation to embrace hard work, as it paves the way for progress and prosperity. He concluded by expressing his best wishes for the students to succeed in life with unity, compassion, and respect.

Following his speech, a pledge was taken by everyone present. The event also included the distribution of prizes and certificates by the Chairman and administration to students who voluntarily donated blood, as well as those who excelled in NSS, Youth Red Cross, NCC, cultural competitions, and various other contests. The celebration concluded with the National Anthem.

The event was attended by Paavai Educational Institutions' Correspondent Mrs. Mangai Natarajan, Vice Chairman Mr. Manisekaran, Joint Secretary Mr. N. Palanivel, Treasurer Dr. Ramakrishnan, Director of Admissions Mr. K. Senthil, all college principals, department heads, professors, and students.

Activity Name: Women's Day Celebration

Date: 08.03.2024

On 08.03.2024, a motivational speech on “தாயும் நீ... தலைவியும் நீ...” was conducted in Anantha Arangam at 10.00 a.m. on the occasion of International Women's Day.

The programme commenced with the prayer song and Tamilthai Vazhthu by students followed by lighting the Kuthuvilakku by the dignitaries. S. Amrita of I B.Sc. C.S. welcomed the gathering.

Shri.CA.N.V.Natarajan, the Chairman of Paavai Institutions honored the Guest Speaker with shawl and memento and presided over the function. Smt. Mangai Natarajan, Correspondent of Paavai Educational Institutions, lit the lamp and felicitated the gathering.

The Guest speaker, Poet Dr. Ilambirai in her special address said that all the students of Paavai have great qualities like humility, peace, mental strength and robustness which they have acquired through Women Empowerment programmes. She also said that evil acts are spreading like poison in the society and such programmes will be a crutch in students' future during their testing times. She reverberated that in the early days the society was matrilineal and also it is not uncommon for women to progress since social reformers like Mahakavi Subramania Bharathiar, Periyar, etc. created awareness among the people about women's freedom and rights earlier. She continued that the platform and progress seen today is all due to the struggle and progress of many women. She then stated that students should study and improve their thinking, strength, language, management and all their skills through proper training and create achievements, for which they need to spend more time. She further said that youth have to use 365 opportunities creatively found in 365 days and give importance to inner beauty, do good deeds and always be helpful to others. She insisted that women must bow travel like a river and rise up with peace, fighting spirit, standing firmly in the ideal, to make a difference in society as a whole. She then wished the students to be the innovative women that Bharathi saw and become role models for others.

The programme came to an end with the Vote of Thanks delivered by V. Kokila of I B.Sc. C.S followed by the National Anthem.

Director (Administration) of Paavai Educational Institutions Dr. K.K Ramasamy, Program Coordinator Mr. M. Mohan, Deans, Principals, Heads of various departments and the staff members of Paavai Institutions graced the occasion by their presence.

Activity Name: Annual Day Celebration

Date: 16.03.2024

The Annual Day 2024' at Paavai Engineering College unfolded on March 16th, 2024, in a spectacular fashion, drawing a crowd of approximately 12,000 students and parents. Such festivities hold substantial importance in enhancing the collegiate journey, nurturing a feeling of camaraderie and dignity, while also serving as a forum for communal advancement and progress.

It commenced with Prayer Song followed by Tamilthaivazithu. The combined annual report of Paavai Educational Institutions for the academic year 2023-2024 was presented through an audio visual by Dr.M.PremKumar, Principal, Paavai Engineering College.

Shri. CA. N. V. Natarajan, the Chairman of Paavai Educational Institutions, emphasized the paramount significance of education and the vital practice of goal setting among the student community. Reflecting on past experiences, he fondly recounted the Alumni meet held in the USA, where former students lauded the institution for nurturing their decision-making abilities. Expressing gratitude, he commended the dedicated efforts of both the teaching staff and students of Paavai for their unwavering commitment, which significantly contributed to the resounding success of the cultural festival ASTRA- “இசையும் நிலவொளியும்”

Followed with it, the Chief Guest introduction was presented through an audio visual by Dr.R.MohanaPriya, Associate Professor, ECE. Mr.Rajendran Dandapani, Business Solutions Evangelist, Zoho Corporation and President, Zoho Schools of Learning was the Chief guest. In the keynote address, he stressed the importance of keen observation of one's surroundings, understanding the scientific principles underpinning creative thinking, avoiding becoming overly reliant on data, and emphasized John Maxwell's renowned quote, “When was the last time you did something for the first time?” He also highlighted the significance of forging connections as a fertile ground for generating ideas, fostering a mindset of continuous learning, and dedicated pursuit of goals.

Subsequently, commendations were bestowed upon exceptional students for their outstanding achievements throughout the year. This was succeeded by a cultural extravaganza comprising of 40 events featuring a medley of diverse melodies depicting the journey of Paavai students intertwined with jubilation. The expression of gratitude was conveyed by Smt.Mangai Natarajan, Correspondent of Paavai Educational Institutions. The function was attended by Paavai Educational Institutions Administrators – Vice Chairman, Secretary, Joint Secretary, Treasurer, Director Admissions, Director Admissions, Director -Paavai Group of Schools, Deans, Principals, Heads of the departments, Press and media, Parents, and students.

Dr.V.RAMARAJ, President, (District Judge super Time Scale), District Consumer Disputes Redressal Commission, Namakkal, was the resource person of the day. The function started with a prayer song invoking God’s blessings. Ms.V.Shanmathi from final year, ECE welcomed the gathering. The function was presided over by Dr.K.K.Ramasamy, Director-Administration, Paavai Educational Institutions. In his Presidential Address, sir highlighted the issues of consumer rights and laid emphasis on its importance. Ms.K.Jeevitha of first year, MBA introduced the Chief Guest with his successful and versatile profile.

The Chief Guest, Dr. V. Ramaraj, who has started the session highlighting the essentials in consumer rights, which every individual should be aware of it. He also explained about the expenses and time duration for the consumer court cases which will make the people hesitate to take actions against consumer crimes. He stated everything in a simple language and also in a simple manner with easy examples which could easily be related and understood by all. He also briefed about the online case hearings which would take place every day in the afternoon, which would be useful for those who couldn’t be present in person in the court.

The session was an interactive one and helped the students to clear their queries by the resource person. The outcome of this one day seminar was, to create exposure about consumer rights and consumer crimes and its redressal procedures which would help the students be aware about the products and services they consume and be careful about not being the victim for a crime against them.

The seminar concluded with the vote of thanks proposed by Ms. R.Swetha of second year, CSE, who thanked all the dignitaries, faculty members and the participants for their active participation. The Heads of various Departments, Professors, and Faculty members made it a grand success with their vibrant presence. Mr.C.Rathnakumar, NSS Programme Officer, Paavai Engineering College and Mrs.M.Bharani Eswari, Assistant Professor, Department of MBA, organized this seminar.
